The entrepreneur Zoroslav Kollár was to be prosecuted for another four months.

The judge for the preparatory proceedings of the Specialized Court in Pezinok (ŠTS) decided on this. The decision is not final.

TASR notified the defendant's attorney, Martin Berec, who filed a complaint against the decision. It is decided by the Supreme Court of the Slovak Republic.

“At the proposal of the Public Prosecutor of the Special Prosecutor's Office (ÚŠP) to extend the detention period of the defendant Zoroslav K., who was presented to the judge for the preparatory trial of ŠTS on April 1

5 in Pezinok, the judge decided on the preliminary trial,” ÚŠP said -Speaker Jana Tökölyová for TASR.

Immediately after its announcement, the prosecutor filed a complaint against this decision, requesting an extension of the detention period by six months. The NS SR will also decide on this complaint.

The former President of the District Court in Bratislava III, David Lindtner, Zoroslav Kollár and the former Vice President of the National Council of the Slovak Republic, Jarmila Urbancová, were invited to the Víchrica event on October 28th last year. Jarmila Urbancová and David Lindtner are charged with the crime of taking a bribe. Zoroslav Kollár was charged with the crime of compromising the independence of the court. Gradually, ŠTS and NS SR decided to detain her.

Most recently, on February 4, ŠTS rejected David Lindtner's application to release him from custody. Although ZTS released Zoroslav Kollár at the beginning of March, at the end of March the National Council of the Slovak Republic overturned the decision of the court of first instance, granted the ÚŠP prosecutor's request and left him in custody. Jarmila Urbancová was released from custody at the end of March.

Zoroslav Kollár has also been charged since March with bribery of the former director of the Slovak Information Service (SIS), Vladimír Pčolinský, and a former member of the SIS in order not to be monitored. Most recently, he was charged in another corruption case. Together with his entrepreneur Tomáš R., Zoroslav Kollár was supposed to bribe the former head of the Criminal Office for Financial Management (KÚFS) Ľudovít M. in the event of illegal cigarette production.
